Just recently added to the already impressive Crash-A-Rama Series lineup is the Aerial Assault Fireworks Display. What better fashion of entertainment goes with America and the Memorial Day Weekend than blasts of light and sound in the evening sky? Just one day before we have the holiday honoring all the brave men and women who have defended this country, the awesome display will take place. The Crash-A-Rama Series program launches at 7:30pm Sunday night May 30th putting a cap on an all-star Speedrome racing weekend schedule that is unprecedented (see a full listing below).

In charge of the Fireworks Aerial Assault will be a group with a long and storied relationship with the Indianapolis Speedrome®. The Casse Family has been the primary provider of 4th of July, Jake's 150, and World Figure 8® Fireworks displays at the famous fifth-mile track. Their America's birthday event signature that makes it stand out from normal programs is the ground displays. Each year, they add several new surprises for that popular event. For many decades, the Casse family has filled the Speedrome infield with various classics including: the Liberty Bell, cars crashing at the crossover, the American Flag, tank battles, and much more. They have some big aerial blasts being prepared for May 30th. Advance VIP Reserved Seat discount tickets are available, so get your tickets today.
